Sai Lan or Ga Tam: A fish trap used for catching medium to large fish such as Pla Pia, Pla God, Pla Kae in the early and late rainy season. The gear is 1 to 2 meters long and found in the Upper Mekong such as Chiang San, Chiang Kong, and Wiang Kane districts in Chiang Rai province.

Bed Nam Tao: a fishhook for catching Pla Learm and Pla Mong in rainy season. A bait is moraceae. The hook is 2 to 3 inches long, and found in the Upper Mekong such as Chiang Kong and Chiang San districts in Chiang Rai and Lower Mekong such as in Pak Mun area, Rasi Salai area, and the Song Kham River.